

Special Meeting With Mark Anderson & David Cole

Good news! One of the most sought-after leaders of our generations, Mark Anderson and David Cole, are coming to town - fresh from their sharing at the Lausanne Conference in Cape Town.

They can stopover for one day only hence we are arranging for key leaders to dialogue on the latest trends and strategies for evangelism, mission and prayer.

Here are the details...

Date: 27th October (Wednesday) 2010

1. Morning Meeting – Marketplace, Church & Para-Church Leaders
@ NECF, 10.00 am – 12.00 noon
(Registration Required, RSVP before 26th Oct)

2. Night Meeting – Open to All
@ SSMC Kampung Sungai Kayu Ara Damansara Utama, 8.00 – 10.00 pm

Mark founded Church in the Move International, an evangelistic and church planting ministry. Over the following decade God prospered this ministry with over one million people coming to Christ. During this season of harvest in the 1980's Mark pastored, church planted and pioneered various medical mission projects. In 1992 Mark became part of Youth With A Mission and founded YWAM Campaigns. In 1993 the Impact World Tour was conceived, a new campaign style ministry designed to reach the cities of the world. Today the IWT conducts city-wide campaigns in over 100 cities globally each year and has become one of the largest evangelistic ministries in the world. In January 25, 2007 he accepted the offer to become chairman of the Global Pastors Network (GPN). Global Pastors Network was founded for the purpose of calling the church to a renewed, focused collaborative effort to see the Great Commission completed. In March 2007 he started Call2All as an extension to this initiative. Call2all is a partnership of hundreds of the top missions agencies, denominations, and organizations in the world, including tens of thousands of Christian leaders, all working together and strategizing to complete the Great Commission in our generation.

David is based in Tauranga, New Zealand. He was in Singapore for 7 years in the 1990's working out into the wider Asian region before returning to NZ to head up the Impact World Tour(IWT) campaigns that saw 23,000 commit their lives to Christ. David have been missionary with YWAM for over 30 years. His focus has been spearheading city & nationwide evangelistic initiatives to reach the emerging generation, helping build unity across the Body of Christ & equipping & inspiring believers towards involvement in new initiatives for the Kingdom of God in their communities. David is the current chairman of the Board of Regents for the University of the Nations, YWAM's global university.
