Theme: Leading Organization

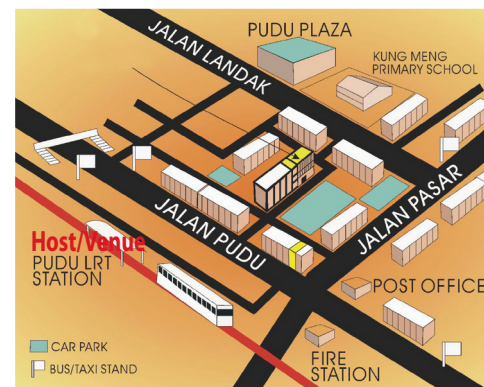

Great leaders build and develop great organizations. Today's churches and organizations need to deal with rapid change, uncertain transitions, breakdown of family life, amongst a host of pressing social and economic realities. This conference will bring together practitioners of best practices, thought leaders and industry experts from the Marketplace and Church to equip you to lead and sustain your church/organization effectively.

Objective

Learn perspectives and practices in leading ministries and organizations by:

- Loving people, delivering performance
- Leading strategically
- Giving our best to God
- Understanding the good & bad politics in organization
- Managing the human side of change
- Leading change effectively
- Sustaining leadership energy
- Building an effective succession plan
