BUILDING STRONG CHURCHES

This one-day seminar is designed for pastors and workers who are interested in looking at how to revitalize their local churches, gain insights and understanding in the concepts and process of building up the local churches, and to more effectively lead the people God has entrusted to them.

Different aspects of establishing a well-functioning church with long-range ministry planning and other areas through right philosophy, policies and practices will be discussed.

The Aims of this seminar :

- + Understand trends in our church, culture and nation.
- + Discover strategic plans on how we can work together.
- + Tips on senior pastoring.
- + Learn how to revitalize your church and start growing again.
- + Facilitate dynamic conversation with key leaders.
- + Leave with concrete plans to move forward.

It is our hope that in this seminar the sharing of pastors to pastors may ignite in participants new vigor and fresh faith to expect and attempt greater things for the Lord in and through their churches.
